

LTC Scott Bullock Chaplain Corps, United States Army

Chaplain Scott Bullock was born at Ft. Stewart, Georgia, to Specialist-5 David and Grace Bullock. His hometown is Warren, Michigan, where he was educated at Sterling Christian School. First Baptist Church of Sterling Heights proved influential during his formative years and where he was ordained following seminary graduation. He holds the Bachelor of Arts and Master of Divinity degrees from Bob Jones University in Greenville, South Carolina.

Scott was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Army Reserve as a Chaplain Candidate in September 1994. He served three years in the Army Seminarian program completing assignments at Ft. Monmouth, New Jersey; Ft. Jackson, South Carolina; and Ft. Campbell, KY. In January 1998, he commenced active duty at Ft. Benning, Georgia. He completed six Battalion Chaplain assignments at Ft. Benning, Georgia; Camp Humphreys, Korea; Ft. Campbell, Kentucky; and Ft. Jackson, South Carolina. He later served as the Chaplain Basic Officer Leader Course Developer and a Small Group Instructor at the Army Chaplain School. Scott returned to the operational Army and completed two assignments with NETCOM strategic signal brigades—the 160th Signal Brigade at Camp Arifjan, Kuwait, and the 93rd Signal Brigade at Ft. Eustis, Virginia. He currently serves as the Deputy Command Chaplain for the Cyber Center of Excellence at Fort Gordon, Georgia.

His military education includes the Chaplain Officer Basic and Advanced Courses and the Command and General Staff College (ILE). He is a certified Army Training Instructor/Developer holding the skill identifier, 5K.

Chaplain Bullock deployed three times in support of Operation Enduring Freedom, Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation New Dawn in 2003, 2005, and 2010-2011.

His military awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with 3 Oak Leaf Clusters, Army Commendation Medal with 4 Oak Leaf Clusters, Army Achievement Medal with 2 Oak Leaf Clusters, Iraq Campaign Medal, Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary and Service Medals, Korean Defense Medal, and the Overseas Service Medal with 4 device.

He is married to the former Kara Priest. They have one son, Jonathan, and one daughter, Jinnea. They reside in North Augusta, South Carolina, and enjoy serving as members at Westside Baptist Church of Martinez, Georgia.