

Jeremy serves as the Chaplain for Round Rock Fire Department in Round Rock, TX, a suburb of Austin. Jeremy has nearly two decades of experience in Emergency Services having worked as an EMT, Firefighter and Public Safety Officer. He has been the Chaplain for RRFD since 2012—a role in which he provides spiritual ministry, counseling and Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) services to the fire department and victims' assistance to citizens of Round Rock.

Jeremy and his team started North Hills Baptist Church in 2011 where he serves as the Lead Pastor. He holds a Bachelor's and Master's Degree in Pastoral Ministry.

Prior to moving to Round Rock in 2011, he served on a pastoral staff in Florida for 10 years. Jeremy enjoys spending time with his wife, Jennifer, and two daughters, Joanna and Julia, reading and especially preaching. Occasionally, Jeremy can be found playing a round of golf. He has been a musician most of his life. In college he studied vocal and choral music and has been in several semi-professional groups.
