

CPT J. Daniel Roland
Chaplain Corps, United States Army

Chaplain J. Daniel Roland was born in Wheat Ridge, Colorado, to Dr. Ralph and Carol Roland. His hometown is Lakewood, CO. where he attended the former South Sheridan Baptist Church, now Red Rocks Baptist Church. He also attended Silver State Baptist School. He went to Bob Jones University in South Carolina, to receive his Bachelor of Arts and Master of Divinity degrees.

Daniel received a direct commission as a First Lieutenant in the Army Reserve in February 2011. For eighteen months he served as part of the UMT of the 104th Training Division's 1st BDE HHC in Arvada, Colorado. There he served the BDE's seven battalions in Washington, Oregon, Colorado, and Kentucky. In June 2012 he was accessioned into Active Duty and reported to Ft. Sill, Oklahoma. He currently serves as the Chaplain for the 2nd Battalion of the 4th Field Artillery Regiment.

His military education consists of the Chaplain Basic Officer Leadership Course.

His military awards and decorations include the Army Achievement Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, the Army Service Medal, and the National Defense Service Medal.

He is married to the former Audrey Beth Pegram. They have three sons: Ezra Dennis, Noah Ralph, and Micah Hanani. They are expecting a fourth child within the month.