

CH (CPT) Matthew Myers

Chaplain, United States Army Reserve

CH Myers grew up in Quakertown, PA. In 2007 he graduated from Upper Bucks Christian School and attended Northland Baptist Bible College. In 2013 he graduated from Northland International University with his BA in Pastoral Studies. During his senior year of college, CH Myers felt the call toward Army Chaplaincy and began pursuing endorsement with the FBFI. In June of 2014 CH Myers received endorsement from the FBFI as a Chaplain Candidate. In 2014 he began his studies at Maranatha Baptist Seminary. He commissioned in January 2015 into the Army Chaplain Candidate Program as a 2LT. CH Myers graduated from MBS in May 2018 with his MDiv. In August 2019, CH Myers was officially accepted as a fully qualified Army Reserve Chaplain and was given the rank of Captain.

In December 2014, CH Myers married Molly. They now have one son born in May 2018. During his time at MBS, the Myers family lived in Watertown, WI, and served at Fellowship Baptist Church. While serving as a Pastor Intern, CH Myers was ordained at Fellowship Baptist Church to the gospel ministry. After graduating from MBS, CH Myers and his family moved to Pensacola in July 2018 where he currently serves as Assistant Pastor at Faith Baptist Church.

CH Myers is currently the Battalion Chaplain assigned to the 787th Combat Sustainment Support Battalion located in Dothan, AL.
