

TROY SHOAF
BOLINGBROOK POLICE CHAPLAIN
UNITED STATES SECRET SERVICE CHAPLAIN
ILLINOIS STATE POLICE CHAPLAIN

Troy Shoaf is an assistant pastor at Independent Baptist Church in Bolingbrook Illinois. As a deputy with the Will County Sheriff's department Auxiliary he became burdened him for the needs of law enforcement. When the Bolingbrook Police chief asked him to become a chaplain he enthusiastically accepted. He is now the chaplain coordinator for the department. He has also become a chaplain with the United States Secret Service and the Illinois State Police. He is an active member of his local chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Peace Officers.

Recently he has started a non-profit organization called Blue Line Ministries with the goal of reaching more officers by offering Law Enforcement specific retreats to address the spiritual, mental, and emotional needs of officers.
