

Chaplain Jeffrey Morris Waterville Fire Department, Waterville, NY

Jeffrey serves as a volunteer firefighter and as the chaplain for the Waterville Fire Department. He has been with the department since 2017. He has completed his Certified First Responder training as well as his Basic Exterior Firefighter Operations classes. As chaplain, he has opportunities to begin the monthly meetings with a short devotional and prayer. He is also able to provide spiritual counseling and assist in various crisis roles. Jeffrey serves as a deacon, teacher, and youth leader at Bible Baptist Church in New Hartford, NY. He is employed as an elementary assistant principal in a local public elementary school. He and his wife, Mindy, enjoy spending time together and with their four children, Kelsey, Emma, Amelia, and Ethan